Course Description

This course builds on the knowledge and skills students acquired in Legal Literature and through conducting legal research for coursework. Students will review basic research tools and techniques and will gain experience researching legislative history and foreign and international materials as well as the use of finding tools, legal commentary, forms and trial preparation resources. Advanced research strategies and techniques as well as efficient and cost-effective use of online legal research sources, including but not limited to Lexis and Westlaw, are emphasized.
Instructional Methods

The course may incorporate lecture/discussion; guest speakers; presentations and research projects. Class meetings will be supplemented by announcements, discussion, and other materials posted on the class Blackboard site (http://bb8.cua.edu).

Required Text

Recommended

The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (Eighteenth Edition) by Harvard Law Review

Other Required Readings

Please see course outline

Required Technologies

Capabilities Required for Course Delivery and Student Participation:
Blackboard; standard CUA software; CUA library and information system accounts; ability to use ALADIN digital library resources. Every student should have daily access to a computer and high speed internet access.

Tools and Technologies Taught: This course presents the concept of technological innovation as a major factor in librarianship and information professions. You will receive basic training using LexisNexis Academic Universe and WESTLAW (passwords will be provided).

Course Goals and Goals for Student Learning:

The goal of this course is to introduce students to the specialized nature of legal bibliography and research. Emphasis will be placed on how to assist users with a broad range of legal questions that arise in various legal environments including, public, law firms, academic and courts.

At the conclusion of this course students should be able to:
- Demonstrate research skills sufficient for professional practice or other work in a legal environment.
- Critically evaluate research tools and make strategic selections from the wide range of tools available
- Utilize a variety of indexing tools to find the law on a topic
- Apply legal concepts to fact-based problem solving and to develop Advanced legal research strategies
- Utilize the integration of print and electronic resources for effective legal research
- Understand the differences between the various types of online research tools

3.7 Monitors trends in specific areas of the law

Course Requirements

Your final grade will be based on the following course requirements:

- Attendance and Participation (10 points). Attendance at all class sessions is required. The class is designed to be highly interactive as such each student is expected to participate in the activities scheduled for each session. Students who attend regularly and contribute the most to the shared pool of knowledge will receive highest grades in this area.

- Secondary Source Critique (20 points). Critique a secondary source from a law library. Options and instructions will be provided.

- Research Exercises (30 points). Complete 3 research exercises worth 10 points each. A worksheet will be provided.
- Term Project (40 points). As a group, you will design a legal information center, write a report and present it to the class on the last day of class. Instructions will be provided.

General Expectations for Students:
- Enroll in Blackboard and check it frequently to receive communications from your instructor (http://bb8.cua.edu).
- Students are expected to read, evaluate, and be prepared to discuss the information provided in reading assignments.
- Assignments will be graded according to the grading standards listed on this syllabus. All assignments should be submitted at the beginning of class on the specified due date. Assignments SUBMITTED LATE (either by date or time) WILL RECEIVE LESSER CREDIT than they would otherwise have done.
- Research exercises are to be the work of each individual student.
- Assignments should be proofread and submitted without grammatical and syntactical errors.
- Incompletes will be granted only under extreme circumstances.

Academic honesty: Academic honesty is expected of all CUA students. Faculty is required to initiate the imposition of sanctions when they find violations of academic honesty, such as plagiarism, improper use of a student’s own work, cheating, and fabrication.

The following sanctions are presented in the University procedures related to Student Academic Dishonesty (from http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad/integrityprocedures.cfm): “The presumed sanction for undergraduate students for academic dishonesty will be failure for the course. There may be circumstances, however, where, perhaps because of an undergraduate student’s past record, a more serious sanction, such as suspension or expulsion, would be appropriate. In the context of graduate studies, the expectations for academic honesty are greater, and therefore the presumed sanction for dishonesty is likely to be more severe, e.g., expulsion. ...In the more unusual case, mitigating circumstances may exist that would warrant a lesser sanction than the presumed sanction.”

Please review the complete texts of the University policy and procedures regarding Student Academic Dishonesty, including requirements for appeals, at http://policies.cua.edu/academicundergrad/integrity.cfm.
